

Unity of Greater Hartford
Sunday Afternoon Workshop

Discovering Your Stage Presence
Sunday, March 17

from 12:30 to 2:30 pm at Unity of Greater Hartford
Registration Fee: $10

Did you ever wish you could feel more comfortable speaking before an audience, a crowd, or even a small group of people? Then this is the workshop for you!

Singer actress Adrienne Buckley will share valuable tips and techniques that will help you:

- ★ feel at ease on stage or before a group of people
★ have better voice projection, modulation and control
★ effectively use a hand-held microphone
★ become more aware of your body and voice on stage
★ better connect to those in your audience

. . . and for those who are willing, she will give individual feedback!

Adrienne Buckley is a singer and actress who has appeared on stages around the world. She has appeared Off Off Broadway, as well as regional and local theaters, and as a part of the vocal ensemble Spiritus, based out of Unity of New York. Her favorite roles include The Witch in Into The Woods and Lois/Bianca in Kiss Me, Kate. She will appear this May in the upcoming production of Newsies at Opera House Players in Enfield.

Known for her commanding stage presence, Adrienne is entirely at home in front of any size audience. Trained at the American Musical and Dramatic Academy, she is experienced in vocal projection, proper microphone technique, and developing comfort and ease on stage. She is thrilled to help anyone find their own divine voice and to empower them to share it with the world!

► Please sign-up in advance! All are invited!
