Beginning on April 7, 2021 the Wednesday Evening Meditation Service will be opened to 20 registrants. If you have registered and need to cancel, please immediately notify the church office at 860-289-8963 or email officemgr@unityhartford.org

► The Wednesday Evening Meditation Service will be offered both on Facebook Live and in the church sanctuary. This policy will continue unless reconsidered by the board.

The Board of Trustees of Unity of Greater Hartford has placed your safety first and foremost. They are guided by scientific fact, government policies and directives, and by Spirit within through prayer. As you read these agreements, remember that we work with physical facts and yet we know the Truth. We can be guided by facts and at the same time know wholeness and health. Our board will continue to review and discuss these guidelines as well as other re-opening plans and as always your safety will come first.

By registering to attend, you agree to the following:

- You will not hold Unity of Greater Hartford liable for any injury and/or illness (including contracting the novel coronavirus which causes COVID-19) that you may incur as a result of participating in events on Unity of Greater Hartford property.
- If after attending this service or visiting the building you test positive for COVID-19, notify local health officials and communicate with Rev Christine (610-348-6276 or revchris@unityhartford.org) about potential exposure for others.. The church may need to inform those in attendance about possible exposure. Your identity will not be released.

Additionally please follow these mandatory guidelines:

- If you are feeling ill or if you have a fever, please stay home and not come to the church.
- If you have traveled outside of the state of CT, you have followed all of the CT guidelines.
- Only those who have pre-registered online and have received a confirmation may attend this service
- No registrants will be allowed in the church building before 6:25 pm or after 7:10 pm.

- You must wear a mask at all times in the church building or on the church grounds. This is not negotiable and there can be no exceptions.
- We will have free single packaged masks and sanitizing lotion available.
- Only one person will be allowed in the one of the two bathrooms at a time (see bathroom changeable signs on doors)
- Maintain 6' of distancing from all people at all times - Do not congregate in any area of the church before or after the service.
- Please only sit where a paper heart is placed. If you attend with someone you live with, you may sit together.
- There will not be any pens or paper available at the church so if you want to write down anything, please have your own paper or pen.
- Prayer request forms have been removed. If you have a prayer request please send an email to prayerrequest@unityhartford.org.
- At the back of the church sanctuary there will be a wooden locked box for your tangible Love Offering checks and cash. No credit cards will be accepted on-site. You may give by credit card through our website.
- At the end of the Meditation Service you will be directed on when and how to exit the church. You may certainly leave at any time prior to the end of the Service. Please do so quietly.
- We affirm that you are healthy and whole by design and we see that coming into expression as you right now!

YES – I agree to adhere to and follow these directions and guidelines as a condition of my registration and attendance. Please sign this form and leave it the basket provided when you arrive. If you are unable to print this form we will provide a copy for you to sign when you arrive.
